

If I wanted new windows for my home, I would research this information. I do not need sometimes up to 5 calls a day from one company until they reach someone in our home. With caller ID, we scan our calls, but I have found that with the do not call law, those calls have dropped significantly. It's wonderful to be able to eat dinner in peace.